FRIDAY, OCTOBER 9, 1868.

The Duty of the Men Whom the Supreme Court Has Pretended to Natu-

A good CITIZEN, when he thinks he has moral right in his favor, may take advantage of a legal technicality and gain his just end; but when he knows that the law is against him, and when justice is against him, and he seeks to evade both by a subterfuge, he proves himself an enemy of both, and is a bad and pestilent disturber of the peace. The recent decision of the Supreme Court, on the fearful investigations which have taken place in re. gard to its mode of procedure, places all the citizens who have been naturalized by it in an anomalous position. Let us see how the case stands. First, there are confessedly a number-how many none can tell-of the naturaliization papers issued by the Supreme Court which have never even gone through the foolish and childish process of being thumbed by the tipstaves. The twelve which were captured are but typical of probably thousands of others like those issued, with the simple difference that they had been filled up and distributed. It was a peculiar good fortune that enabled the Court to have those ones ex. hibited to it, captured before they were distributed or made regularly out. The fact that these are caught would of itself vitiate and taint any bona fide paper. An honest man with unblemished character would hesitate about offering his actual paper, when he knows it would justly subject him, though innocent, to suspicion. So that even with a paper duly sealed and signed, the existence of these bogus papers would militate against the holder. Second, the manner in which the bona fide papers have been issued is such as to make any paper obtained in the Nisi Prius Court an insult and a taunt to the man who holds it. Every man of them are subjected to the remark: "Oh, yes! you went to that court because you dared not go to the other!" Every man who tries to vote on that paper merits such a punishment. Great wrong will undoubtedly be thus done to honest citizens, but they must thank the Court and not the public. They have, however, a chance now to go into the due courts of law, into the Quarter Sessions, Common Pleas, or District Court, and before the election redeem their good name and exercise untainted their right as citizens. So that not only is the holder of every one of these papers subjected to the suspicion that he got it ille- tactics. If the "General Boums of the gally by theft, but also that he got it illegally | C. S. A." had been only prudent and through the negligence of the Court. Third, in addition to these two terrible aspects in which a poor man-one whose fame for honesty is his capital-will be placed by attempting to vote on these papers, there is another which makes every one who seeks to vote on them, whether he got them from the Democratic Committee or from the Court, appear as a scoundrel. The Judges, three to two, have decided that these papers are illegally issued, and that, too, whether they be stolen, or issued, as Judges Thompson and Sharswood direct. They have said that on Monday next we will officially and judicially declare these papers void. Now what is the duty of the holders of papers, be they moral men or only shrewd men? Why, clearly to refuse to go to the polls with these papers. If they go they subject themselves to imputation, to insinuation, to suspicion-aye, and to arrest. How will the officer of election know whether or not the paper presented may not have been stolen, like hundreds were? It is his right, it is his duty, to arrest the man who presents it, and make him show that he is not attempting to pass an illegal vote. If, after the decision on Monday, it should be announced that the papers issued at Nisi Prius are all illegal, then the parties who voted or sought to vote on them, will, whether they got them from the Court or stole them from the Prothonotary, be guilty of attempting to fraudulently vote, and will deserve and receive conviction and punishment. Let the people think over this calmly and quietly. Let them say to themselves, "Shall I risk my fair fame, my character, my very liberty, all to aid the cause of those who have thus deceived me?" and we feel sure, after reflection, the holders of those papers will take our friendly advice and keep away from the polls. If they do not, it is the duty of the election officer to refuse to receive their votes until they prove that they are citizens, and that the seal is not a forgery. We call, then, on all good men who have been naturalized in the Supreme Court to hasten at once to the District Court, and there be naturalized-for if you don't, it is your duty and a stern necessity for you to keep away from the polls on Tuesday next. The Moyamensing Hose Company. WHILE Mr. Terrence McCusker held the position of Chief Engineer of the Fire Department of this city, he discharged the duties incumbent upon him satisfactorily to the public and creditably to himself. But at the recent election Mr. McCusker was defeated and Mr. George Downey was elected in his place. With the causes which led to this change in the administration of the Fire Department we have nothing to do. The firemen have the privilege of electing their own Chief, and a majority, in a fair and open election, cast their ballots for Mr. Downey. This action settles the question until the next election, and all well-disposed members of the department should acquiesce in the result. If any of them do not relish the idea of running to fires under Mr. Downey's leadership, let them withdraw from the rervice. There will be quite enough remaining to extinguish all the fires that break out in a legitimate way.

But it appears that some of the adherents of the late Chie! Engineer are not disposed to accept the situation. He is a member of the Moyamensing Hose Company, and that association in particular seems intent upon giving the new administration all the trouble and vexation that is possible. The most damaging charge-indeed, the only one that can be brought against Mr. McCusker-is his connection with this disreputable company. The list of respectable persons belonging to it does not exceed a half-dozen. Of the remaining members the netorious Alderman McMullin and Councilman William H. P. Barnes are fair specimens, and their names have long been a terror to all reputable people residing in the neighborhood of the hose house. The persistent refusal of the Fire Association to admit the company into its organization shows the low estimation in which it is held by the best class of our firemen. Since the election of Mr. Downey, the Moyamensing Hose has been more rampant than ever before, and our streets have, on several different occasions of late, been disgraced by disturbances in which its members and hangers-on have figured as the inciters and leaders. The wrath of these desperate rowdies has been directed principally against the companies which took a prominent stand in favor of the election of Mr. Downey, and several members of the letter have been

For this disgraceful state of affairs there is but one remedy, and that is the most summary that can be devised. The company is now out of service voluntarily, for what reason they themselves best know. Councils should carry the work still further, and proceed to disband the organization without any delay. Temporary suspension will no longer avail to check their innate propensity for mischief. If the firemen as a class are to be relieved from the standing disgrace which is inflicted upon them by the Moyamensing Hose Company, it can be done only by the annihilation of the laiter.

THE DIFFICULTIES OF THE DEMOCRACY .- A Southern journal has ably and pithily exposed the weakness of the present position of the party, and the cause of it. It upholds the Brodhead letter as the true fighting ground of the Democracy and as a document embracing a doctrine for which the country was prepared, but it confesses that by some egregious blunder a false move at the beginning of the game has utterly spoiled it. Southern fanatical politicians, with ill-timed haste and ill-considered enthusiasm, rushed "to the front" with such vehement utterance of the intentions of the party as to compel their Northern brethren to become the apologists of a position only tenable by offensive patient enough to preserve the magnificent and impregnable attitude offered to them by the Northern Democracy; if they had so conducted themselves that their friends might have called on the world to admire them as the martyrs and victims of tyranny, as the silent sufferers of a holy cause; in fact, if they had displayed themselves as "ill-used" and "down-trodden," the eloquence of their Northern friends might have rung out boldly in their defense, but by proclaiming war to the knife, and upholding it by organized systems of arson and murder, and all the fiendish tactics of the K K. K., they have destroyed their own hopes by derauging the well-contrived scheme for their defense, and thus annihilating the only means by which their triumph could have been assured.

THE Press this morning informs its readers that the polls on election day open at eight o'clock in the morning and close at six in the afternoon. This is an error. The polls are required by law to be opened at seven o'clock and to close at six. By voting early you will have done your own duty, and will then be at leisure to hunt up and hurry on the laggards.

Ir shmen, rememberithat your most glorious and immortal patriots and martyrs, ROBERT EMMETT. WOLFE TONE, JOHN AND HENRY SHEARS and great Irish tribune DANIEL O'CONNELL were among the earliest advocates of the fundamental principles that govern the Republican party. Shall we accept their glorious and sublime teachings by voting for GRANT and COLFAX, or the teachings of Seymour, the spawn of the Belmont and the English sristocracy, or those of Blair, who wished the Irish people back in their own bleeding country to suffer the lash and chain of centuries. Remember that it was that noble man of our race, President ANDREW JACKSON, who stifled rebellion and nullification in its first infancy, and a host of gallant Irish patriots, soldiers such as SHERIDAN, COR-CORAN, MEAGHER, MULLIGAN, and SMITH helped to give secession its death-blow, and thus saved the Union, which the Government and aristocracy of England, in concert with the Democratic party, endeavored to destroy. Irish Republicans. meet in your might on FRIDAY EVENING to support GRANT and COLFAX, the friends of the op-
